

THE ANNOINTMENT WITH INNER LIGHT

'Silver and gold I have none, but what I have I give to you'. The Inner Light of understanding is more precious than all the treasures in your world. With the Inner Light you understand life, its existence, function, creation and meaning. Understanding your existence gives you the key to life.

Inner Light shows the way to the higher vibrations. Brighten your understanding through brightening the Inner Light. Shine brighter from within - out. Raise your consciousness each day, hour and minute. As you brighten the Light you become one with it. The Light is you and you are the Light. Light is Life and you are Life. The I Am consciousness that you are, the awareness that you exist comes from the Inner Light. Without the Inner Light you would not be aware that you exist.

As you consciously lift your consciousness by brightening the Light within and allowing the awareness of the Inner Light to become brighter then you move higher in understanding. The Inner Light becomes brighter as you move higher in understanding and raise your consciousness.

You are one with the Light that shines from the center of creation which is the Godhead, the all knowing awareness of the Creator. With the Light I see. I understand. I behold. I comprehend. I am aware.

Illumination comes by consciously using the Inner Light. Illumination is the awareness of being, the awareness of being all of life. Illumination shows the way through all mystery. Illumination generates power for the ability to think. You think not just with the physical mind, but with spiritual illumination which is the ability to think beyond the physical into the astral, mental and spiritual. Illumination brightens the inner realms to give insight.

To be annointed with Light is to illuminate the inner awareness of all the mysteries of life. To be annointed with Light is to be Christed. And it is this annointing with Light that gives understanding to what John the Baptist said; 'I baptize you with water, but the one that comes after me baptizes you with fire and with spirit'. To be annointed with Light is to behold the inner awareness and the secret of Life Itself.

With the Inner Light I see. I understand. I comprehend. I am aware. I know. I behold. Without the Light to see Life would not exist. It is the understanding that brings Life into existence. Light is beholding. Light is seeing. Light is comprehending. Light is being aware. Light is the ability to know. Through experience we know more. The more experience that we have the more that we know and the more we live.

The Teacher said, 'I came that you might have life and have it abundantly'. Behold Life IS because the Inner Light shows you the way. The Inner Light gives you the ability to see and understand.

Without Inner Light comprehension would not be there. Beholding would not be there. Understanding would not be there. Without any of these Life would not be. Life IS because we behold. This brings Life into existence. This is why the Inner Light continually burns and shines even though it may flicker and dim. It continually shines and cannot be extinguished.

I Am means I exist. The understanding that I exist brings forth the Life that I am. The I Am awareness is Life. The Inner Light brings the ability to comprehend that I Am.

The light from the great central sun is stimulating vibrations on this planet. The rays from this powerful sun are hitting this planet in our cycle around the sun. The light that is brought forth from this powerful sun is stimulating our planet into becoming a self-illuminating star instead of a dark reflecting planet. The scientists call these cosmic rays. The planet is stimulated into higher vibrations through the bombardment of these cosmic rays. The light from this huge central sun and the Inner Light is also stimulated to a much greater degree in each individual. For those who are conscious of this most opportune time to stimulate the Inner Light within themselves the ability to grow is accelerated. This growth can be stimulated by using the power of this great central sun as a symbolic force to bring forth the mysteries of life and wisdom of the ages. You will gain complete unity with the Creator of all Life.

The time is now. The fields are ripe unto harvest, the day of salvation is at hand. Behold the Inner Light! See the Truth and know the origin of your existence. Take this opportunity that comes only once in a cycle. It is yours because you are present on this planet at this time. This stimulation from the huge central sun and cosmic rays are stimulating the planet and everything on it. These cosmic rays are stimulating the outer surface, but also the Inner Light is being stimulated to free those who have been trapped by the belief in illusion.

The illusionary images, the judging by appearances will soon be seen through by everyone. The illusion will disappear and everyone will behold the Truth through the Inner Light of understanding.

As you give attention to your Inner Light and brighten up your consciousness through the understanding of the opportunity of this new age then you can become a participant and understand the new law; the law of giving, of giving Light.
